CONDITIONS OF SALE

The purchaser will be the highest bidder. If an event occurs (dispute) between two or more bidders about who is the purchaser? The Auctioneer shall decide who is the purchaser, or will immediately re-offer the disputed Lot for sale.

The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse bidding at any time and to determine the amount to be increased with each bid.

The vendors reserve the right to place a reserve on any Lot or Lots and can bid for any Lot or Lots. They can also instruct the Auctioneer or any other person to bid on their behalf.

The purchaser will be required to give their name and address in writing and pay the whole purchase money at and before the close of sale.

Each Lot shall be at the risk of the purchaser at the fall of the hammer.

No Lot can be removed from the sale premises until paid for.

Payment by cheque for any Lot can be refused, unless prior arrangement has been made, otherwise payments must be made by cash.

All descriptions and statements in this catalogue of any Lots are made without the responsibility on the part of the Promoter or the Vendors and no such statement/description should be relied on as a statement or representation of fact. Any Purchaser must satisfy him/herself by inspection or otherwise, as to the correctness of all the statements contained in the catalogue. The Vendors and the Promoter will not make any representation or Warranty whatsoever in relation to any Lot contained in the catalogue.

There is a Buyer's premium of 15%, VAT does not apply.

There will be a new hand painted tablet produced each year to mark the auction

A big thank you to everyone who have supported this event

A provisional date for next year will be Wednesday 28th October 2015
